GREG AND CHRIS MILLER

International Discipleship

Rev. Gregory J. Miller, M.Ed.; D.Min.- was born in Reading, Pennsylvania. He is married to Christine who was born and raised in Germany. They have four children and eight grandchildren. Chris and Greg joined Unevangelized Fields Mission, now known as Crossworld in 1975. In 1978 they entered the mission field in Belem, Brazil, to minister at the Amazon Valley Academy, a school for missionary children. Subsequently they served in church planting in Belem, leaving two churches in national hands. They also developed the Belem Evening Bible Institute. They then served at the Abaetetuba Bible Center and ministered among the river population of the lower Amazon, leaving the Abaetetuba Bible Institute in national hands. In 2002 they moved to Cuiaba, Mato Grosso, in the south of Brazil and ministered there in leadership development. In 2008, after thirty years in Brazil, they accepted the invitation to serve as European directors of Source of Light Ministries and relocated to Madison, Georgia. Greg also serves in a teaching capacity with the Alternative Media department and in the World Wide Bible Institute program.

Christine Miller serves as the Spanish language coordinator at the Madison Discipleship school. The majority of her students are prisoners. Both Greg and Chris are officially missionaries with Crossworld but on loan to Source of Light Ministries International in order to develop international discipleship schools..
